

FIELD DAY AGENDA

August 31, 2023
9:30 am – 3:00 pm
Arlington Agricultural
Research Station
N695 Hopkins Rd.
Arlington, WI

9:30-9:45 Welcome, Load Wagons

10:00 Stop 1

- Dr. Tatiane Silva, Dept. of Plant and Agroecosystem Sciences – Ecological intensification of organic grain rotations
- Dr. Julie Dawson, Dept. of Plant and Agroecosystem Sciences – Organic small grain breeding
- Claire Benning, Dept. of Soil Science – Interseeded cover crops into organic corn
- Dr. Shelby Ellison, Dept. of Plant and Agroecosystem Sciences – Hemp production

11:15 Stop 2

Dr. Gregg Sanford, Dept. of Plant and Agroecosystem Sciences – WICST trial and Long-term organic research

11:30 Return to Event Center for lunch

Lunch from Pasture and Plenty featuring local grains and veggies

12:30 Small Grain Adoption Presentation and Discussion with Dr. Lauren Asprooth, Center for Integrated Agricultural Systems

12:45 Load up wagons
travel to afternoon session

1:00-3:00 Stop 3

- Ben Brockmueller, Dept. of Plant Pathology – Sunflower variety trials
- Disease product trialing in organic grains
- Ben Brockmueller, Dept. of Plant Pathology – Interseeding cover crops into corn on 60" rows
- Dr. Erin Silva and Ben Brockmueller, Dept. of Plant Pathology – Strip-tilled organic corn into alfalfa
- Dr. Erin Silva and Ben Brockmueller, Dept. of Plant Pathology – Dry beans into roller-crimped rye
- Dr. Brian Luck, Dept. of Biosystems Engineering and Ben Brockmueller, Dept. of Plant Pathology – Modifying planter coulters to optimize seed placement in rolled-crimped rye

3:00 End Field Day

Join the OGRAIN listserv!
ograin+subscribe@g-groups.wisc.edu

